

Ultimate Nutrition, CBD Softgels

Ultimate Nutrition's CBD Softgels, has been formulated with the rigors of everyday life in mind. The research team at Ultimate Nutrition has selected the highest quality cannabidiol derived from the cannabis plant.

This innovative delivery method provides phytocannabinoids, including cannabidiol (25mg), and terpenes, including beta-caryophyllene and limonene, to be absorbed in a softgel capsule. The orally taken softgel is designed to leave no aftertaste for the consumer who wants the benefits of CBD oil but dislike the texture or consistency of the liquid form.

Cannabidiol has been shown in recent studies to have a positive benefit on overall health, relaxation, and well-being.^{1,2,3} With cutting edge science and innovative delivery methods, Ultimate Nutrition's formulation of CBD Softgels is on the front line of new-age health.
